

FOI_0958_2022-23 – FOI Request Concerning – Long COVID Hub for Children and Young People

The date the trust's long COVID hub for children and young people became operational

1st June 2021

The number of initial specialist assessments which have taken place at the trust's long COVID hub for children and young people since it began operating

114

The number of follow-up assessments which have taken place at the trust's long COVID hub for children and young people since it began operating

442

The waiting time from referral to initial specialist assessment at the trust's long covid hub for children and young people since it began operating, broken down as follows:
0-6 weeks, 6-12 weeks, 12-18 weeks, more than 18 weeks

0-6: 28 referrals

6-12: 30 referrals

12-18: 17 referrals

18+: 5 referrals

This is the wait time to the first specialist assessment, following that initial contact further specialists may be linked to the referral that are included in the number quoted for Question 2 but excluded here. This is the true wait between referral and any initial contact.

The mean average waiting time from referral to initial specialist assessment at the trust's long COVID hub for children and young people since it began operating

9.1 Weeks